PC Partner Participates in the World's Largest Innovation Event
- 2013 CES in US

Tapping Overseas Business Opportunities with Reputable Products

PC Partner Group Limited through its self-owned brand ZOTAC recently participated in 2013 International Consumer Electronics Show (2013 CES) in Las Vegas, the United States, unveiling its latest IT innovation to the visitors from all over the world to demonstrate its strength and capability.

To exhibit PC Partner's latest achievement, ZOTAC featured a series of innovative products at the 2013 CES including the self-developed mini-PC series and the latest high-end video graphics cards and motherboards followed by a live demonstration which allows potential buyers and visitors to experience the high technology products through interaction.

Taking part in the world's largest annual event, PC Partner upholds its brand image and in the same time explores its cross border business opportunity on high-quality computer products. "After years of research and development, we are able to integrate desktop components and discrete graphics into ZOTAC's award-winning ZBOX mini-PC for greater flexibility and higher performance capabilities. By attending the 2013 CES, PC Partner not only develops its overseas business but also consolidates its market leadership in global market." said Mr. Wong Shik Ho Tony, Chairman and CEO of PC Partner.

The Consumer Electronics Show is the world's largest annual innovation event. Hosted by the Consumer Electronics Association, the CES 2013 offers exhibitions and conferences for technology entrepreneurs, with more than 3,250 exhibitors showcased a wide range of innovative products and over 153,000 international buyers and professionals for the purpose of new technology products preview and launch.
