1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Proposal. The Company refers to Resolution 11 of the AGM Notice. Resolution 11 is a Special Resolution to be proposed at the 2026 AGM for the proposed adoption of the new Memorandum and Articles of Association (the “Proposal”).

1.2 Appendix. The purpose of this Appendix is to provide you with information in relation to the Proposal.

1.3 SGX-ST. The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of any of the statements made, reports contained, or opinions expressed in this Appendix.

APPENDIX TO THE NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

1.4 Legal Advisers. Allen & Gledhill LLP is the legal adviser to the Company in relation to the Proposal. Conyers Dill & Pearman Pte. Ltd. is the legal adviser to the Company as to Cayman Islands law in relation to the Proposal.

2. THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

2.1 Introduction. At the 2024 EGM, Shareholders had approved the adoption of the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association, incorporating amendments for compliance with the relevant requirements of the Listing Manual in connection with the Company's proposed conversion of its listing status on the SGX-ST to a primary listing (the "Conversion").

2.2 Rationale for the Proposed Amendments. While the Company has historically been sending notices and documents to Shareholders by way of electronic communications while it was listed on the HKEX, the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association do not provide for such electronic communications pursuant to the relevant requirements of the Listing Manual, which apply to the Company following the Conversion.

The Board proposes that various amendments (together, the "Proposed Amendments") be made to the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association to provide for electronic communications pursuant to the relevant requirements of the Listing Manual.

2.3 New Memorandum and Articles of Association. Accordingly, the Board proposes to recommend that the Proposed Amendments be made by the adoption of the new Memorandum and Articles of Association set out in the Annex to this Appendix in substitution for, and to the exclusion of, the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association. Minor housekeeping amendments to the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association are also proposed to be made.

While several provisions of the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association are no longer relevant following the Company's delisting from the HKEX, instead of making alterations throughout the existing Memorandum and Articles of Association to update and streamline such provisions, the Company is proposing to minimise amendments and incorporate only the Proposed Amendments. The Proposal is subject to approval of the Shareholders by way of a Special Resolution to be tabled at the 2026 AGM and if so approved at the 2026 AGM, shall take effect from the date of the 2026 AGM.

Following the Conversion, the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association are required to comply with the Listing Manual, including Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual. The Board is of the view that the new Memorandum and Articles of Association, having been amended to be consistent with the requirements of the Listing Manual prevailing at the Latest Practicable Date in accordance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual, complies with the Listing Manual, including Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.

APPENDIX TO THE NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

2.4 Summary of the Proposed Amendments. The following is a summary of the Proposed Amendments. This summary should be read in conjunction with the new Memorandum and Articles of Association which is set out in its entirety in the Annex to this Appendix. Numbered Articles referred to in the following summary pertain to relevant provisions of the new Memorandum and Articles of Association, unless otherwise stated.

2.4.1 Electronic Communications. The Listing Manual permits listed issuers to, pursuant to Rules 1208 to 1212 of the Listing Manual, send documents to shareholders electronically with the express, implied or deemed consent of the shareholder. In this regard:

- (i) Rule 1208 of the Listing Manual provides that the Company may send documents, including notices, circulars and annual reports, using electronic communications to a Shareholder, if there is express consent from that Shareholder;
- (ii) Rule 1209(1) of the Listing Manual provides that there is “deemed consent” if (A) a Shareholder was by notice in writing given an opportunity to elect, within such period of time specified in the notice, whether to receive the notice or document by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy, and (B) the Shareholder fails to make an election within the time so specified; and
- (iii) Rule 1209(2) of the Listing Manual stipulates that there is “implied consent” if the Articles of Association (A) provides for the use of electronic communications, (B) specifies the manner in which the electronic communications is to be used, and (C) provides that the Shareholder agrees to receive such notice or document by way of such electronic communications and does not have a right to elect to receive physical copies of such notice or document.

Under the Listing Manual, certain safeguards are prescribed where an issuer uses electronic communications. Among others:

- (a) Rule 1209(1)(b) of the Listing Manual prescribes certain safeguards with respect to the use of the deemed consent regime, namely that before sending any notice by way of electronic communications to a shareholder who is deemed to have consented, the company must have given separate notice in writing to the shareholder on at least one occasion that:
 - the shareholder has a right to elect, within a time specified in the notice, whether to receive notices and documents in either electronic or physical copies;
 - if the shareholder does not make an election, documents will be sent to the shareholder by way of electronic communications;

APPENDIX TO THE NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- the manner in which electronic communications will be used is the manner specified in the constitution of the company;
 - the election is a standing election, but the shareholder may make a fresh election at any time to receive notices or documents by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy; and
 - until the shareholder makes a fresh election, the election that is conveyed to the company last in time prevails over all previous elections as the shareholder's valid and subsisting election in relation to all documents to be sent;
- (b) Rule 1210 of the Listing Manual provides that issuers shall send the following documents to shareholders by way of physical copies: (i) forms or acceptance letters that shareholders may be required to complete; (ii) notices of meetings, excluding circulars or letters referred to in that notice; (iii) notices and documents relating to takeover offers and rights issues; and (iv) notices under Rules 1211 and 1212 of the Listing Manual (as described above in paragraphs (c) and (d) below);
- (c) Rule 1211 of the Listing Manual provides that when an issuer uses electronic communications to send a document to a shareholder, the issuer shall inform the shareholder as soon as practicable of how to request for a physical copy of that document from the issuer and the issuer shall provide a physical copy of that document upon such request; and
- (d) Rule 1212 of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer uses website publication as the form of electronic communications, the issuer shall separately provide a physical notification notifying of: (i) the publication of the document on the website; (ii) if the document is not available on the website on the date of notification, the date on which it will be available; (iii) the address of the website; (iv) the place on the website where the document may be accessed; and (v) how to access the document.

Accordingly, the following provisions have been included in Article 180(A) of the new Memorandum and Articles of Association:

- (A) Article 180(A)(ii)(b) provides that a notice or document may be served or delivered by the Company to any Shareholder (A) by electronic means to such address as may from time to time be authorised by the Shareholder concerned or (B) by publishing it on a website and notifying the Shareholder concerned that it has been so published.
- (B) Article 180(A)(iv) provides that for the purposes of Article 180(A)(ii)(b), a Shareholder shall be deemed to have agreed to receive such notice or document by way of such electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document (this is the implied consent regime permitted under Rule 1209(2) of the Listing Manual).

- (C) Article 180(A)(v) provides that notwithstanding Article 180(A)(iv), the Board may, at their discretion, at any time give a Shareholder an opportunity to elect whether to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications if he was given such an opportunity but failed to elect within the specified time (this is the deemed consent regime permitted under Rule 1209(1) of the Listing Manual).
- (D) Article 180(A)(vi) additionally provides for when service is effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. In particular, where a notice or document is made available on a website, it is deemed to have been duly sent on the date on which the notice or document is first made available on the website, unless otherwise provided under the Cayman Companies Act and/or other applicable regulations or procedures.

Further, under Article 180(A)(viii), in the case of service on a website, the Company must give separate notice of, among others, the publication of the notice or document on that website and the manner in which the notice or document may be accessed (1) by sending such separate notice to Shareholders personally or by post and/or (2) by sending such separate notice to Shareholders' current addresses by electronic communication, subject to the rules and regulations of the SGX-ST. Accordingly, for so long as the Listing Manual requires an issuer to provide a physical notification to Shareholders where documents are published on a website (including pursuant to Rule 1212 of the Listing Manual), the Company will provide such separate notice to Shareholders personally or by post.

2.4.2 Deemed Notice. Consequential changes have been made to Article 182 for consistency with Article 180(A) of the new Memorandum and Articles of Association. In particular, Article 182 has been amended to provide that any notice or document, if sent by electronic means to the current address of a Shareholder pursuant to Article 180(A)(ii)(b)(A), shall be deemed to have been given “at the time of transmission of the electronic communication by the email server or facility operated by the Company or its service provider to the current address of such Shareholder”, instead of “on the day following that on which the electronic communication was sent by or on behalf of the Company”. This amendment reflects current market practice and modern electronic communications principles. Article 182 has also been amended to clarify that the non-receipt by a Shareholder of any notice or document that has been sent or given to that Shareholder in accordance with the Articles of Association does not invalidate the deemed delivery of the notice or document to that Shareholder.

2.4.3 Information. Article 187 has been updated to provide a carve-out for situations where authorised by law or required by the Listing Manual, in respect of the prohibition on Shareholders' entitlement to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade or secret process which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company which in the opinion of the Board will be inexpedient in the interests of the Shareholders to communicate to the public.

2.4.4 Listing Manual. Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment.

Articles 1(d) and 65. Articles 1(d) and 65 have been updated to clarify that the provision permitting a meeting of the Company to be deemed duly called, notwithstanding that it is convened by shorter notice than that specified in Article 65, shall operate subject to any applicable rules or regulations of the SGX-ST. This amendment is intended to align Articles 1(d) and 65 with the requirements of Rule 704(15) of the Listing Manual.

Article 45. Article 45 has been updated to provide that, if the Board refuses to register a transfer of any Share, the Company shall, within ten (10) market days after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to each of the transferor and the transferee written notice of such refusal and the reason(s) for such refusal. The amendments to Article 45 include replacing the previous two (2) month period with a period of ten (10) market days, expressly requiring such notice to be in writing, and removing the exception for Shares which are not fully paid, so as to align Article 45 with Rule 733 of the Listing Manual.

Article 62. Article 62 has been updated to clarify and streamline the modes in which general meetings may be held, by deleting the reference to physical meetings being held "in any part of the world, and at one or more locations as provided in Article 71A", so as to align Article 62 with Rule 730A(1) of the Listing Manual. As amended, Article 62 provides that, subject to Article 63, a meeting of Shareholders or any class thereof (including an annual general meeting or an adjourned or postponed meeting) may be held as a physical meeting or as a general meeting using virtual meeting technology, as may be determined by the Board in its absolute discretion. In addition, Article 63 provides that so for so long as the Shares of the Company are listed on the SGX-ST, if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST, unless prohibited by any of the applicable laws, the Company shall hold its general meetings either (a) at a physical place in Singapore, or (b) at a physical place in Singapore and using virtual meeting technology. Accordingly, Article 62 is subject to Article 63 and for so long as the Shares of the Company are listed on the SGX-ST, the Company is subject to the applicable listing rules of the SGX-ST in relation to the permissible mode and place of holding of general meetings.

Article 72. Article 72 has been updated to provide that the discretion of the Chairman of the meeting to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands, shall be subject to the Listing Manual. This amendment is intended to ensure consistency with the requirements of Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual.

2.5 Shareholders are advised to consider the Proposed Amendments, including the amendments to provide for electronic communications to Shareholders, as set out in paragraph 2.4 above carefully, and if they do not agree with the same, they should vote against Resolution 11 which is to be tabled at the 2026 AGM.

3. DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION

The Directors are of the opinion, for the reasons set out in paragraph 2.2 above, that the Proposal is in the best interests of the Company. Accordingly, they recommend that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 11, being the Special Resolution relating to the proposed adoption of the new Memorandum and Articles of Association as set out in the AGM Notice.

4. DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT

The Directors collectively and individually accept full responsibility for the accuracy of the information given in this Appendix and confirm after making all reasonable enquiries that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, this Appendix constitutes full and true disclosure of all material facts about the Proposal, the Company and its subsidiaries, and the Directors are not aware of any facts the omission of which would make any statement in this Appendix misleading. 65B. The period of notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and exclusive of the day on which the general meeting is to be held, and the notice shall specify (unless such requirement is waived or is not required by the Designated Stock Exchange):

- (a) the day, time and place of the general meeting;
- (b) the resolutions to be proposed and, in case of special business, the general nature of the business;
- (c) details on the physical place of the general meeting;

 - (iii) cast their votes.

Any notice of a general meeting to consider special business shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution on the Company in respect of such special business. There shall appear with reasonable prominence in every such notice a statement that a Shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and to vote instead of him and that such proxy need not be a Shareholder.

65C. If, after the delivery of a notice calling a general meeting but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of a general meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not a notice calling the adjourned meeting is required), the Board, in its absolute discretion, considers that (for any reason) it will be inappropriate, impracticable, unreasonable or undesirable for the general meeting to be held on the date or at the time or place, or by means of the virtual meeting technology, specified in the notice of the meeting, it may: (a) postpone the meeting to another date and/or time; and/or (b) change the place and/or virtual meeting technology for the meeting, without the consent of any person. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall have the power to provide in every notice calling a general meeting the circumstances in which such a change or postponement of the relevant general meeting may occur automatically without further notice. This Article is subject to the following rules and requirements:

- (1) where a general meeting has been postponed or there has been change to the place and/or virtual meeting technology for a general meeting, the Company shall: (A) endeavour to post a notice of such change or postponement on the Company's website as soon as reasonably practicable (provided that failure to post such a notice shall not affect the automatic change or automatic postponement of such meeting); and (B) subject, and without prejudice, to Article 71, unless already specified in the original notice calling the meeting or any notice posted on the Company's website, the Board shall determine the date, time, place and virtual meeting technology (if applicable) for the changed or postponed meeting, specify the date and time by which proxies must be submitted in order to be valid at that meeting (provided that any proxy submitted for the original meeting shall be valid for the purposes of the postponed meeting unless it is revoked or replaced); and
 - (2) the Company will not be required to give notice of the matters to be considered at a changed or postponed general meeting, or send (or resend) any relevant documents, to any Shareholder, provided that those matters and documents are the same as the matters and documents referred to in the notice calling the original meeting.
66. (a) The accidental omission to give any notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed or any proceedings at any such meeting. Omission to give notice
- (b) In the case where forms of proxy or notice of appointment of corporate representative are to be sent out with any notice, the accidental omission to send such forms of proxy or notice of appointment of corporate representative to, or the non-receipt of such forms by, any person entitled to receive notice of the relevant meeting shall not invalidate any resolution passed or any proceeding at any such meeting.

 - (vii) the granting of any mandate or authority to the Board to repurchase securities of the Company.
68. Unless otherwise specified, for all purposes the quorum for a general meeting shall be two Shareholders present in person (or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy and entitled to vote. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless the requisite quorum shall be present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and continues to be present until the conclusion of the meeting. Quorum
69. If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week and at such time and (where applicable) such place(s), and (where applicable) in such form and manner referred to in Article 62, as shall be decided by the Board, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Shareholder or the Shareholders present in person (or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called. When quorum is not present meeting to be dissolved and when to be adjourned
70. The Chairman (if any) of the Board or if he is absent or declines to take the chair at such meeting, the Vice Chairman (if any) of the Board shall take the chair at every general meeting, or, if there is no such Chairman or Vice Chairman, or, if at any general meeting neither of such Chairman or Vice Chairman is present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or both such persons decline to take the chair at such meeting, the Directors present shall choose one of their number as Chairman of the meeting, and if no Director be present or if all the Chairman of general meeting

Directors present decline to take the chair or if the Chairman of the meeting chosen shall retire from the chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

71. Subject to Article 71A, the Chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of any general meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least seven clear days' notice, specifying the place, the day and the hour of the adjourned meeting, shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting but it shall not be necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting. Save as aforesaid, no notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting needs to be given nor shall any Shareholder be entitled to any such notice. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

- 71A. (a) If permitted by the Designated Stock Exchange, any general meeting of the Company (including an annual general meeting, any adjourned meeting or postponed meeting) may be held using virtual meeting technology as may be determined by the Board in its absolute discretion.
- (b) If a general meeting is to be held using virtual meeting technology, the notice of the meeting shall include a statement to that effect and details of the virtual meeting technology for attendance and participation by electronic means at the meeting or where such details will be made available by the Company prior to the meeting. The notice shall also specify the principal place of the meeting (the "Principal Meeting Place").
- (c) The Board may, at its absolute discretion, arrange for persons entitled to attend a general meeting by simultaneous attendance and participation by means of virtual meeting technology at such location or locations ("Meeting Location(s)") determined by the Board at its absolute discretion. The general meeting shall be treated as having commenced if it has commenced at the Principal Meeting Place.
- (d) Any Shareholder or any proxy, or in the case of Shareholders being corporations, any duly authorised representatives of such Shareholders, attending and participating in a general meeting at the Principal Meeting Place, any Meeting Location(s) or by means of virtual meeting technology, is deemed to be present at the meeting and shall be counted in the quorum of the meeting, and that meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid provided that the Chairman of the meeting is satisfied that adequate virtual meeting technology is available throughout the meeting to ensure that Shareholders participating in the general meeting by means of such virtual meeting technology are able to participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened.

- (e) The Board and, at any general meeting the Chairman of the meeting may from time to time make arrangements for managing participation and/or voting at the Principal Meeting Place and any Meeting Location(s) and/or by means of virtual meeting technology (whether involving the issue of some means of identification, passcode, electronic voting or otherwise) as it (or he) shall in its (or his) absolute discretion consider appropriate, and may from time to time change any such arrangements. Votes (whether on a show of hands or by way of poll) may be cast by such means, electronic or otherwise, as the Board or the Chairman of the meeting may determine.
- (f) If it appears to the Chairman of a general meeting that the virtual meeting technology made available by the Company for such general meeting, is or has become inadequate, then without prejudice to any other power which the chairman of the meeting may have under the Companies Act, these Articles or at common law, the Chairman may, at his/her absolute discretion, without the consent of the meeting, and before or after the meeting has started and irrespective of whether a quorum is present, adjourn the meeting. All business conducted at the meeting up to the time of such adjournment shall be valid. The adjourned meeting may be in any form (including the use of virtual meeting technology) permitted by the Designated Stock Exchange and as the Board may determine.
- (g) All persons seeking to attend and participate in a general meeting using virtual meeting technology shall be responsible for maintaining adequate facilities to enable them to do so. Any inability of a person or persons to attend or participate in a general meeting by way of virtual meeting technology shall not invalidate the proceedings of and/or resolutions passed at that meeting.
- (h) The manner and form of participation by a Shareholder or any proxy, or in the case of Shareholders being corporations, any duly authorised representatives of such Shareholders, in a general meeting (including one where virtual meeting technology is used) shall be in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange or as may be prescribed or permitted by the Designated Stock Exchange.

72. For so long as the Shares of the Company are listed on the Designated Stock Exchange, if required by the listing rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, at any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by way of poll (unless such requirement is waived by the Designated Stock Exchange). Subject to the foregoing, save that the Chairman of the meeting may, in good faith, allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands, in which case, subject to any special rights or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any Shares by or in accordance with these Articles (including Article 85(a)(i)), each Shareholder present in person (or being a corporation, is present by a representative duly authorised under Article 92) or by proxy shall have one (1) vote and the Chairman of the meeting shall determine which proxy shall be entitled to vote where a Shareholder (other than the Depository or a relevant intermediary) is represented by two proxies, provided that in the case of a Shareholder who is the Depository or a relevant intermediary and who is represented by two or more proxies, each such proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands. For the purposes of this Article, procedural and administrative matters are those that: (i) are not on the agenda of the general meeting or in any supplementary circular that may be issued by the Company to the Shareholders; and (ii) relate to the duty of the Chairman of the meeting to maintain the orderly conduct of the meeting and/or allow the business of the meeting to be properly and effectively dealt with, whilst allowing all Shareholders a reasonable opportunity to express their views.

Where a show of hands is allowed, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll may be demanded by:

- (a) by the Chairman of such meeting; or
- (b) at least two Shareholders present in person (or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy for the time being entitled to vote at the meeting; or
- (c) any Shareholder or Shareholders present in person (or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) any Shareholder or Shareholders present in person (or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy and holding Shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting being Shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the Shares conferring that right; or
- (e) where the Depository is a Shareholder, by at least two (2) proxies representing the Depository.

73. Where a resolution is voted on by a show of hands, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect made in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolution. What is to be evidence of the passing of a resolution where poll not demanded
74. If a poll is required or demanded as aforesaid, it shall (subject as provided in Article 75) be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets or an e-voting platform) and at such time and place not being more than thirty days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was required or demanded as the Chairman of the meeting directs. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Poll meeting at which the poll was required or demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, with the consent of the Chairman of the meeting, at any time before the close of the meeting at which the poll was demanded or the taking of the poll, whichever is the earlier.

75. Any poll required or duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment or postponement shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment or postponement. For so long as the Shares of the Company are listed on the Designated Stock Exchange, if required by the listing rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, at least one (1) scrutineer shall be appointed and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll. In what case poll taken without adjournment
76. In the event of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place (where no poll is demanded) or at which the poll is required or demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. In the event of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of any vote, the Chairman of the meeting shall determine the same, and such determination shall be final and conclusive. Chairman to have casting vote
77. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. Business may proceed notwithstanding demand for poll
78. If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the Chairman of the meeting, the proceedings shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling. In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a Special Resolution no amendment thereto (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted upon. Amendment of resolutions

VOTES OF SHAREHOLDERS

79. Subject to any special rights or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any Shares by or in accordance with these Articles, at any general meeting (a) on a show of hands every Shareholder present in person (or being a corporation, is present by a representative duly authorised under Article 92) or by proxy shall have one (1) vote and the Chairman of the meeting shall determine which proxy shall be entitled to vote where a Shareholder (other than the Depository or a relevant intermediary) is represented by two proxies, and (b) on a poll every Shareholder present in person or by proxy or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative shall have one (1) vote for every fully paid Share of which he is the holder or which he represents and in respect of which all calls due to the Company have been paid, but so that no amount paid up or credited as paid up on a Share in advance of calls or instalments is treated for the foregoing purposes as paid up on the Share. Votes of Shareholders

App.3 Para.
Para. 14(4)

79A. Each Shareholder has the right to speak and (except where that Shareholder is required, by the listing rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, to abstain from voting to approve the matter under consideration) vote at a general meeting. Where the Company has knowledge that any Shareholder is, under the listing rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such Shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

80. Any person entitled under Article 51 to be registered as the holder of any Shares may vote at any general meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such Shares, provided that at least 48 hours before the time of the holding of the meeting or adjourned or postponed meeting (as the case may be) at which he proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the Board of his right to be registered as the holder of such Shares or the Board shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

Shareholders

81. Where there are joint registered holders of any Share, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such Share as if he were solely entitled thereto; but if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting personally or by proxy, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the Register in respect of such Share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased Shareholder, and several trustees in bankruptcy or liquidators of a Shareholder in whose name any Share stands shall for the purposes of this Article be deemed joint holders thereof.

Joint holders

82. A Shareholder of unsound mind or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or receiver, or other person in the nature of a committee or receiver appointed by that court, and any such committee, receiver or other person may vote on a poll by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be delivered to such place or one of such places (if any) as is specified in accordance with these Articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy or, if no place is specified, at the Registration Office, not later than the latest time at which an instrument of proxy must, if it is to be valid for the meeting, be delivered.

83. Save as expressly provided in these Articles or otherwise determined by the Board, no person other than a Shareholder duly registered and who shall have paid everything for the time being due from him payable to the Company in respect of his Shares shall be entitled to be present or to vote (save as proxy or authorised representative for another Shareholder) whether personally, by proxy or by attorney or to be counted in the quorum, at any general meeting.

Qualification
for voting

84. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any person exercising or purporting to exercise a vote or the admissibility of any vote except at the meeting or adjourned or postponed meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

APPOINTMENT OF PROXY AND CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVE

App.3 Para.
Para. 19

85. (a) Any Shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint another person as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him at a general meeting of the Company or at a class meeting. Any Shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company who is the holder of two (2) or more shares shall be entitled to appoint not more than two (2) proxies to attend and vote instead of him at a general meeting of the Company or at a class meeting, provided that if the Shareholder is the Depository or a relevant intermediary:

Proxies

- (i) the Depository or the relevant intermediary may each appoint more than two (2) proxies to attend and vote at the same general meeting and each proxy shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the Depository or the relevant intermediary (as the case may be) as the Depository or the relevant intermediary (as the case may be) could exercise, including, notwithstanding Articles 72 and 79, the right to vote individually on a show of hands or on a poll;
- (ii) unless the Depository specifies otherwise in a written notice to the Company, the Depository shall be deemed to have appointed as the Depository's proxies to vote on behalf of the Depository at a general meeting of the Company each of the Depositors who are individuals and whose names are shown in the records of the Depository as at a time not earlier than 72 hours prior to the time of the relevant general meeting supplied by the Depository to the Company and notwithstanding any other provisions in these Articles, the appointment of proxies by virtue of this Article 85(a)(ii) shall not require an instrument of proxy or the lodgement of any instrument of proxy;
- (iii) the Company shall accept as valid in all respects the form of instrument of proxy approved by the Depository (the "CDP Proxy Form") for use at the date relevant to the general meeting in question naming a Depositor (the "Nominating Depositor") and permitting that Nominating Depositor to nominate a person or persons other than himself as the proxy or proxies appointed by the Depository. A Nominating Depositor who is not a relevant intermediary may nominate not more than two (2) persons to attend and vote in his place as proxy or proxies appointed by the Depository, and a Nominating Depositor who is a relevant intermediary may nominate more than two (2) persons to attend and vote in its place as proxies appointed by the Depository. The Company shall, in determining rights to vote and other matters in respect of a completed CDP Proxy Form submitted to it, have regard to the instructions given by and the notes (if any) set out in the CDP Proxy Form. The submission of any CDP Proxy Form shall not affect the operation of Article 85(a)(ii) and shall not preclude a Depositor appointed as a proxy by virtue of Article 85(a)(ii) from attending and voting at the relevant meeting but in the event of attendance by such Depositor the CDP Proxy Form submitted bearing his name as the Nominating Depositor shall be deemed to be revoked;

- (iv) the Company shall reject any CDP Proxy Form of a Nominating Depositor if his name is not shown in the records of the Depository as at a time not earlier than 72 hours prior to the time of the relevant general meeting supplied by the Depository to the Company; and
 - (v) on a poll the maximum number of votes which a Depositor, or proxies appointed pursuant to a CDP Proxy Form in respect of that Depositor, is able to cast shall be the number of Shares credited to the Securities Account of that Depositor as shown in the records of the Depository as at a time not earlier than 72 hours prior to the time of the relevant general meeting supplied by the Depository to the Company, whether that number is greater or smaller than the number specified in any CDP Proxy Form or instrument of proxy executed by or on behalf of the Depository.
- (b) In any case where an instrument of proxy appoints more than one (1) proxy (including the case when a CDP Proxy Form is used), the proportion of the shareholding concerned to be represented by each proxy shall be specified in the instrument of proxy.
- (c) A proxy need not be a Shareholder. On a poll or a show of hands votes may be given either personally (or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative) or by proxy. A proxy shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of a Shareholder who is an individual and for whom he acts as proxy as such Shareholder could exercise. In addition, a proxy shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of a Shareholder which is a corporation and for which he acts as proxy as such Shareholder could exercise if it were a Shareholder who is an individual.
86. No appointment of a proxy shall be valid unless it names the person appointed and his appointor. The Board may, unless it is satisfied that the person purporting to act as proxy is the person named in the relevant instrument for his appointment and the validity and authenticity of the signature of his appointor, decline such person's admission to the relevant meeting, reject his vote or demand for a poll and no Shareholder who may be affected by any exercise by the Board of its power in this connection shall have any claim against the Directors or any of them nor may any such exercise by the Board of its powers invalidate the proceedings of the meeting in respect of which they were exercised or any resolution passed or defeated at such meeting.

87. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation, either under its seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney or other person authorised to sign the same or, in the case of the Depository, signed by its duly authorised officer by some method or system of mechanical signature as the Depository may deem appropriate. In the case of an instrument of proxy purporting to be signed on behalf of a corporation by an officer thereof it shall be assumed, unless the contrary appears, that such officer was duly authorised to sign such instrument of proxy on behalf of the corporation without further evidence of the fact.

Instrument
appointing proxy to be in writing

88. The instrument appointing a proxy and, if requested by the Board, the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed on behalf of the appointor (which shall, for this purpose, include a Depositor), or a certified copy of such power or authority:

Appointment
of proxy must be de

- (a) if sent personally or by post, shall be delivered to such place or one of such places (if any) as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the meeting (or, if no place is so specified, at the Registration Office or the Registered Office, as may be appropriate); or
- (b) if submitted by electronic communication, must be received through such means and at such electronic address as may be specified by the Company for that purpose in or by way of note to the notice convening the general meeting or in or by way of note to any document accompanying the notice convening the general meeting, and in either case, not less than 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned or postponed meeting (as the case may be) at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll taken subsequently to the date of a meeting or adjourned meeting, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 Months from the date named in it as the date of its execution, except at an adjourned or postponed meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned or postponed meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within 12 Months from such date. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a Shareholder from attending and voting in person (or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, its duly authorised representative) at the meeting convened and in such event, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to be revoked.

89. Every instrument of proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall be in any usual or common form (including any form approved from time to time by the Depository) or in such other form as the Board may from time to time approve, provided that any form issued to a Shareholder for use by him for appointing a proxy to attend and vote at an extraordinary general meeting or at an annual general meeting at which any business is to be transacted shall be such as to enable the Shareholder, according to his intentions, to instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against (or, in default of instructions, to exercise his discretion in respect of) each resolution dealing with any such business. Form of proxy
90. The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a general meeting shall: (i) be deemed to confer authority upon the proxy to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any resolution (or amendment thereto) put to the meeting for which it is given as the proxy thinks fit; and (ii) unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment or postponement of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates. Authority under instrument appointing proxy
91. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or by the duly authorised representative of a corporation shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or power of attorney or other authority under which the proxy was executed or the transfer of the Share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at its Registration Office, or at such other place as is referred to in Article 88, at least two hours before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned or postponed meeting at which the proxy is used. When vote by proxy valid though authority revoked
- App.3
92. (a) Any corporation which is a Shareholder may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body or by power of attorney, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Shareholders, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to vote and otherwise exercise the same rights and powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were a Shareholder who is an individual. References in these Articles to a Shareholder present in person at a meeting shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include a corporation which is a Shareholder represented at the meeting by such duly authorised representative. Appointment of multiple corporate representatives
- App.3
Para.19
- (b) Where a Shareholder is the Depository (or its nominee, in each case, being a corporation), it may authorise such persons as it thinks fit to act as its representatives at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Shareholders provided that the authorisation shall specify the number and class of Shares in respect of which each such representative is so authorised. Each person so authorised under the provisions of this Article shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers as if such person was the registered holder of the Shares of the Company held by the Depository (or its nominee) in respect of the number and class of Shares specified in the relevant authorisation including the right to vote individually on a show of hands or on a poll.

During the Relevant Period, where a Shareholder is a Clearing House (or its nominee(s)), it may (subject to Article 93) appoint one or more proxies or authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative or representatives at any general meeting of the Company, any meeting of any class of Shareholders or any meeting of creditors, and each of those proxies or representatives shall enjoy rights equivalent to the rights of other Shareholders, provided that if more than one person is so authorised, the authorisation shall specify the number and class of Shares in respect of which each such representative is so authorised. A person so authorised pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers on behalf of the Clearing House (or its nominee(s)) which he represents as that Clearing House (or its nominee(s)) could exercise as if such person were a Shareholder who is an individual, including the right to vote individually on a show of hands and the right to speak.

- (c) Any reference in these Articles to a duly authorised representative of a Shareholder being a corporation shall mean a representative authorised under the provisions of this Article.

- (b) The Board may also pay half-yearly or at other suitable intervals to be settled by it any Dividend which may be payable at a fixed rate if the Board is of the opinion that the financial conditions and the profits of the Company justify the payment.
- (c) The Board may in addition from time to time declare and pay special Dividends of such amounts and on such dates and out of such distributable funds of the Company as it thinks fit, and the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article as regards the power and exemption from liability of the Board as relate to the declaration and payment of interim Dividends shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the declaration and payment of any such special Dividends.
156. (a) No Dividend shall be declared or paid or shall be made otherwise than in accordance with the Companies Act. Dividends not to be paid out of capital
- (b) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act but without prejudice to paragraph (a) of this Article, where any asset, business or property is bought by the Company as from a past date (whether such date be before or after the incorporation of the Company) the profits and losses thereof as from such date may at the discretion of the Board in whole or in part be carried to revenue account and treated for all purposes as profits or losses of the Company, and be available for Dividend accordingly. Subject as aforesaid, if any Shares or securities are purchased cum Dividend or interest, such Dividend or interest may at the discretion of the Board be treated as revenue, and it shall not be obligatory to capitalise the same or any part thereof or to apply the same towards reduction of or writing down the book cost of the asset, business or property acquired.

- (c) During the Relevant Period, subject to paragraph (d) of this Article all Dividends and other distributions in respect of Shares shall be stated and discharged, in the case of Shares denominated in Hong Kong dollars, in Hong Kong dollars, and in the case of Shares denominated in any other currency, in such other currency, provided that, in the case of Shares denominated in Hong Kong dollars, the Board may determine in the case of any distribution that Shareholders may elect to receive the same in any other currency selected by the Board, converted at such rate of exchange as the Board may determine.
- (d) If, in the opinion of the Board, any Dividend or other distribution in respect of Shares or any other payment to be made by the Company to any Shareholder is of such a small amount as to make payment to that Shareholder in the relevant currency impracticable or unduly expensive either for the Company or the Shareholder then such Dividend or other distribution or other payment may, at the absolute discretion of the Board, be, if this be practicable, converted at such rate of exchange as the Board may determine and paid or made in the currency of the country of the relevant Shareholder (as indicated by the address of such Shareholder on the Register).

Company rather than to the Shareholders concerned, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Board and may authorise any person to sign any requisite instruments of transfer and other documents on behalf of all Shareholders interested in the Dividend and such instrument and document shall be effective. The Board may further authorise any person to enter into on behalf of all Shareholders having an interest in any agreement with the Company or other(s) providing for such Dividend and matters in connection therewith and any such agreement made under such authority shall be effective. The Board may resolve that no such assets shall be made available or made to Shareholders with registered addresses in any particular territory or territories being a territory or territories where, in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities, this would or might, in the opinion of the Board, be unlawful or impracticable or the legality or practicality of which may be time consuming or expensive to ascertain whether in absolute terms or in relation to the value of the holding of Shares of the Shareholder concerned and in any such event the only entitlement of the Shareholders aforesaid shall be to receive cash payments as aforesaid. Shareholders affected as a result of exercise by the Board of its discretion under this Article shall not be, and shall be deemed not to be, a separate class of Shareholders for any purposes whatsoever.

160. (a) Subject to the rules or regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange, whenever the Board or the Company in general meeting has resolved that a Dividend (including an interim, final, special or other Dividend) be paid or declared on Shares of a particular class in the capital of the Company, whenever the Board or the Company in general meeting has resolved that a Dividend be paid or declared on the share capital of the Company, the Board may further resolve, either:
- Scrip
Dividend
- (i) that such Dividend be satisfied wholly or in part in the form of an allotment of Shares credited as fully paid on the basis that the Shares so allotted shall be of the same class or classes as the class or classes already held by the allottee, provided that the Shareholders entitled thereto will be entitled to elect to receive such Dividend (or part thereof) in cash in lieu of such allotment. In such case, the following provisions shall apply:
 - (A) the basis of any such allotment shall be determined by the Board;
 - (B) the Board, after determining the basis of allotment, shall give not less than 14 clear days' notice in writing to the Shareholders of the right of election accorded to them and shall send with such notice forms of election and specify the procedure to be followed and the place at which and the latest date and time by which duly completed forms of election must be lodged in order to be effective;
 - (C) the right of election may be exercised in respect of the whole or part of that portion of the Dividend in respect of which the right of election has been accorded; and

(D) the Dividend (or that part of the Dividend to be satisfied by the allotment of Shares as aforesaid) shall not be payable in cash in respect whereof the cash election has not been duly exercised (the “non-elected Shares”) and in lieu and in satisfaction thereof Shares shall be allotted credited as fully paid to the holders of the non-elected Shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid and for such purpose the Board shall capitalise and apply out of any part of the undivided profits of the Company or any part of any of the Company’s reserve accounts (including any special account, or share premium account (if there is any such reserve)) as the Board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the Shares to be allotted on such basis and apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate number of Shares for allotment and distribution to and amongst the holders of the non-elected Shares on such basis;

(ii) that Shareholders entitled to such Dividend will be entitled to elect to receive an allotment of Shares credited as fully paid in lieu of the whole or such part of the Dividend as the Board may think fit on the basis that the Shares so allotted shall be of the same class or classes as the class or classes of Shares already held by the allottee. In such case, the following provisions shall apply:

(A) the basis of any such allotment shall be determined by the Board;

(B) the Board, after determining the basis of allotment, shall give not less than 14 clear days’ notice in writing to the Shareholders of the right of election accorded to them and shall send with such notice forms of election and specify the procedure to be followed and the place at which and the latest date and time by which duly completed forms of election must be lodged in order to be effective;

(C) the right of election may be exercised in respect of the whole or part of that portion of the Dividend in respect of which the right of election has been accorded; and

(D) the Dividend (or that part of the Dividend in respect of which a right of election has been accorded) shall not be payable on Shares in respect whereof the Share election has been duly exercised (the “-elected Shares”) and in lieu thereof Shares shall be allotted credited as fully paid to the holders of the elected Shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid and for such purpose the Board shall capitalise and apply out of any part of the undivided profits of the Company or any part of any of the Company’s reserve accounts (including any special account, contributed surplus account, share premium account and capital redemption reserve fund (if there is any such reserve)) as the Board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the Shares to be allotted on such basis and apply the same in paying up in full the appropriate number of Shares for allotment and distribution to and amongst the holders of the elected Shares on such basis.

- (b) The Shares allotted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article shall rank pari passu in all respects with the Shares then in issue and held by the allottee in respect of which they were allotted, save only as regards participation:
- (i) in the relevant Dividend (or the right to receive or to elect to receive an allotment of Shares in lieu thereof as aforesaid); or
 - (ii) in any other distributions, bonuses or rights paid, made, declared or announced prior to or contemporaneously with the payment or declaration of the relevant Dividend unless, contemporaneously with the announcement by the Board of its proposal to apply the provisions of sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (a) of this Article in relation to the relevant Dividend or contemporaneously with its announcement of the distribution, bonus or rights in question, the Board shall have specified that the Shares to be allotted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article shall rank for participation in such distribution, bonus or rights.
- (c) The Board may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to any capitalisation pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article with full power to the Board to make such provisions as it thinks fit in the case of Shares becoming distributable in fractions (including provisions whereby, in whole or in part, fractional entitlements are aggregated and sold and the net proceeds distributed to those entitled, or are disregarded or rounded up or down or whereby the benefit of fractional entitlements accrues to the Company rather than to the Shareholders concerned), and no Shareholders who will be affected thereby shall be, and they shall be deemed not to be, a separate class of Shareholders by reason only of the exercise of this power. The Board may authorise any person to enter into on behalf of all Shareholders interested, an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalisation and matters incidental thereto and any agreement made pursuant to such authority shall be effective and binding on all concerned.
- (d) The Company may upon the recommendation of the Board by Ordinary Resolution resolve in respect of any one particular Dividend that notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article a Dividend may be satisfied wholly in the form of an allotment of Shares credited as fully paid without offering any right to Shareholders to elect to receive such Dividend in cash in lieu of such allotment.

- (e) The Board may on any occasion when they resolve as provided in paragraph (a) of this Article, further determine that:
- (i) no allotment of Shares or rights of election for Shares under Article 160(a) shall be made available or made to Shareholders whose registered addresses entered in the Register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register are outside Singapore or to such other Shareholders or class of Shareholders as the Board may in its sole discretion decide and, in such event, the only entitlements of the Shareholders aforesaid shall be to receive in cash the relevant Dividend resolved or proposed to be paid or declared; and
 - (ii) no allotment of Shares or rights of election for Shares under Article 160(a) shall be made available or made to a person, or any persons, if such allotment or rights of election would in the opinion of the Board cause such person, or such persons, to hold or control voting Shares in excess of any shareholding or other limits which may from time to time be prescribed in any Statute or the rules or regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange, without the approval of the applicable regulatory or other authority as may be necessary.
- (f) Subject to the rules or regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange, the Board shall have full power to make such provisions as it thinks fit for the implementation of a scheme which enables Shareholders to elect to receive securities in lieu of cash amount of any Dividend, and the Board may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to such a scheme.

161. The Board may, before recommending any Dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as it thinks fit as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for meeting claims on or liabilities of the Company or contingencies or for paying off any loan capital or for equalising Dividends or for any other purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (including in the repurchase by the Company of its own securities or the giving of any financial assistance for the acquisition of its own securities) as the Board may from time to time think fit, and so that it shall not be necessary to keep any investments constituting the reserve or reserves separate or distinct from any other investments of the Company. The Board may also without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to be distributed by way of Dividend. Reserves

162. Unless and to the extent that the rights attached to any Shares or the terms of issue thereof otherwise provide, all Dividends shall (as regards any Shares not fully paid throughout the period in respect of which the Dividend is paid) be apportioned and paid pro rata according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the Shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the Dividend is paid. For the purposes of this Article no amount paid on a Share in advance of calls pursuant to Article 38 shall be treated as paid on the Share. Dividends to be paid in proportion to paid up capital

- (i) as from the date of such act or transaction the Company shall establish and thereafter (subject as provided in this Article) maintain in accordance with the provisions of this Article a reserve (the “Subscription Right Reserve”) the amount of which shall at no time be less than the sum which for the time being would be required to be capitalised and applied in paying up in full the nominal amount of the additional Shares required to be issued and allotted credited as fully paid pursuant to sub-paragraph (iii) below on the exercise in full of all the subscription rights outstanding and shall apply the Subscription Right Reserve in paying up in full the amount of the shortfall referred to in sub-paragraph (iii) in respect of such additional Shares as and when the same are allotted;
- (ii) the Subscription Right Reserve shall not be used for any purpose other than that specified above unless all other reserves of the Company (other than the share premium account) have been extinguished and will then only be used to make good losses of the Company if and so far as is required by law;
- (iii) upon the exercise of all or any of the subscription rights represented by any warrant, the relevant subscription rights shall be exercisable in respect of a nominal amount of Shares equal to the amount in cash which the holder of such warrant is required to pay on exercise of the subscription rights represented thereby (or, as the case may be, the relevant portion thereof in the event of a partial exercise of the subscription rights) and, in addition, there shall be allotted in respect of such subscription rights to the exercising warrant holder, credited as fully paid, such additional nominal amount of Shares as is equal to the shortfall between:
- (aa) the said amount in cash which the holder of such warrant is required to pay on exercise of the subscription rights represented thereby (or, as the case may be, the relevant portion thereof in the event of a partial exercise of the subscription rights); and

Subscription
Right

- (bb) the nominal amount of Shares in respect of which such subscription rights would have been exercisable having regard to the provisions of the conditions of the warrants, had it been possible for such subscription rights to represent the right to subscribe for Shares at less than par and immediately upon such exercise so much of the sum standing to the credit of the Subscription Right Reserve as is required to pay up in full such additional nominal amount of Shares shall be capitalised and applied in paying up in full such additional nominal amount of Shares which shall forthwith be allotted credited as fully paid to the exercising warrant holder; and
- (iv) if upon the exercise of the subscription rights represented by any warrant the amount standing to the credit of the Subscription Right Reserve is not sufficient to pay up in full such additional nominal amount of Shares equal to such shortfall as aforesaid to which the exercising warrant holder is entitled, the Board shall apply any profits or reserves then or thereafter becoming available (including, to the extent permitted or not prohibited by law, the share premium account) for such purpose until such additional nominal amount of Shares is paid up and allotted as aforesaid and until then no Dividend or other distribution shall be paid or made on the fully paid Shares then in issue. Pending such payment up and allotment, the exercising warrant holder shall be issued by the Company with a certificate evidencing his right to the allotment of such additional nominal amount of Shares. The rights represented by any such certificate shall be in registered form and shall be transferable in whole or in part in units of one (1) Share in the like manner as the Shares for the time being are transferable, and the Company shall make such arrangements in relation to the maintenance of a register therefor and other matters in relation thereto as the Board may think fit and adequate particulars thereof shall be made known to each relevant exercising warrant holder upon the issue of such certificate.
- (b) Shares allotted pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall rank pari passu in all respects with the other Shares allotted or which ought to be allotted on the relevant exercise of the subscription rights represented by the warrant concerned. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (a) of this Article, no fraction of any Share shall be allotted on exercise of the subscription rights.
- (c) The provisions of this Article as to the establishment and maintenance of the Subscription Right Reserve shall not be altered or added to in any way which would vary or abrogate, or which would have the effect of varying or abrogating, the provisions for the benefit of any warrant holder or class of warrant holders under this Article without the sanction of a Special Resolution of such warrant holder(s) or class of warrant holders.

- (d) A certificate or report by the Auditors as to whether or not the Subscription Right Reserve is required to be established and maintained and if so the amount thereof so required to be established and maintained, as to the purpose for which the Subscription Right Reserve has been used, as to the extent to which it has been used to make good losses of the Company, as to the additional nominal amount of Shares required to be allotted to exercising warrant holders credited as fully paid, and as to any other matter concerning the Subscription Right Reserve shall (in the absence of manifest error) be conclusive and binding upon the Company and all warrant holders and Shareholders.

STOCK

196. The following provisions shall have effect at any time and from time to time provided that they are not prohibited by or inconsistent with the Companies Act:

No warrants to bearer shall be issued in respect of any stock.
- (c) The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards Dividends, participation in assets on a winding up, voting at meetings, and other matters, as if they held the Shares from which the stock arose, but no such rights, privileges or advantages (except participation in the Dividends and profits and in the assets on winding up of the Company) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in Shares, have conferred such rights, privileges or advantages.
- (d) Such of the provisions of these Articles as are applicable to fully paid Shares shall apply to stock, and the words “Share” and “Shareholder” herein shall include “stock” and “stockholder” and “member”.
